Boro Firemen Hold Annual Banquet

Count duMarais Unable To Attend Because Of Illness

The annual firemen banquet given by the Mulberry Fire Company of the Narberth Fire Company, was held at Elm Hall last Saturday evening.

William H. Durbin, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president, Count duMarais, who was unable to attend because of illness.

The tables were decorated in red, white and blue, and a fairly dinner was served.

Chairman of the dinner room committee was Mrs. Thomas Baker. Mrs. Edward Muller and Mrs. Lloyd Edgerton were in charge of decorations, and Mrs. John Burrell and Mrs. John Wetzel were hostesses.

Mrs. H. S. Dornes, president of the Mulberry, presided at the kitchen committee, assisted by Mrs. Joseph White, Mrs. Edgar Cockrell, Mrs. Clifford Bates, Mrs. George W. Orth, Mrs. Lutz Adams and Mrs. A. F. Burdette.

Community singing was led by Mr. Taylor.

Presidents and representatives of nearby fire companies were guests.

Speakers were Captain Nicholas Beard, Philadelphia Fire Department; Captain Frank A. Rowe, fire defense coordinator of Philadelphia; and Peter C. Hess, treasurer of Lower Merion Township.

Captain Beard, who is defense instructor for the Narberth company, lauded the company's progress and declared they were ready for any emergency in war or peace. Captain Rowe stressed the importance of a cooperative defense program among suburban towns in the Philadelphia metropolitan area.

Movies of the firemen in action at some of the big fires of the year were shown by John C. Padon, Jr., secretary of the company.

Historical Group Urged to Expand

Narberth Man Elected President, Explains Program

A greater expansion program for the Montgomery County Historical Society was urged last Saturday night at a meeting in the Society's headquarters at Norristown.

The program was outlined by Chester P. Cook, Narberth, who was recently elected president of the Society.

Although the president did not advocate inauguration of the program until after the war, he said that this was lamentable in view of the rich historical background that Montgomery enjoyed. One of the counties to which he referred was Chester, where $60,000 was raised recently to finance a new building. The president suggested that plans be formulated now that could be launched when peace is declared.

First prize in the Society's annual essay contest was awarded to Edward E. Long, Jr., Norristown High School student, Herbert Heber Smith, Lower Merion Township, was a member of the essay committee.

Velour Curtains to Blackout Lower Merion's Control Center

Some of the best-looking blackout curtains in town are now installed in the Township Building, Ardmore, where they will be used to darken this key control center.

Of heavy greenish-blue velour, they hang at the windows of the Police Department, the Control Center room and the President's office, the main stairway, police roll call room and the Commissioners' room.

The special velour draperies, some 24 pairs of them, are cut full and long with pinch-pleated folds so that they cover the windows completely.

When not in use the draw curtains blend in with the color scheme and add a real decorative note.

Sen. Davis to Speak At Upper Darby Rally

Favor Jenkins For Magistrate

Would Fill Vacancy Caused by Smedley's Resignation

J. Lewis Jenkins, 105 Price av., Narberth, has been recommended to fill the magistrate vacancy in Narberth Borough.

The recommendation, approved by all the Narberth Republican committee men and women, has been sent to Lloyd H. Wood, chairman of the Montgomery County Republican Committee.

Governor James makes the appointment on recommendation.

The position became open last week when the resignation of Horace T. Smedley, 211 Grayling av., Narberth, was announced. He accepted a position as superintendent of grounds and buildings at Bryn Mawr College.

Smedley was elected in 1937 for a six-year term and Jenkins is appointed to fill the vacancy.

At present Jenkins is not occupied.

The law provides for two magistrates in the Borough of Narberth. The other magistrate is Otto Duer who was appointed when Roy I. Gowland resigned.

Get Rifle Awards

John Wally Goodwin and Thomas Fleming, both Ardmore boys, have been awarded the Expert Rifleman Medal by the Junior Division of the National Rifle Association in Washington, D. C., it was announced this week.

Gladwyne Pins Hopes On Veteran Baseball Club

Having fallen just a bit short of the pennant the past couple seasons, the Gladwyne A. A. is coming back more determined than ever to land the championship in the Main Line Baseball League this year.

So far the war hasn't caused much havoc with the Gladwyne squad and there is an excellent chance it may be represented with almost the same cast as last season. In fact, things look so good at the moment that co-managers Jimmy Keyes and George Nellings are willing to make a friendly wager that their club will be in the playoffs.

"Just how high we'll finish will depend a lot upon how the draft hits us this summer," explained Keyes yesterday. "We may get off fairly easy as most of our players are either married or are very young. Regardless of what happens I think we'll make the playoffs."

Main reason for Keyes' optimism is the return of a veteran staff of pitchers and catchers. Bill O'Donnell, league's leading hurler who dropped only one decision last year, will be back for his fifth season in Gladwyne togs. Vince Signorelli and Bob Davidson, who shared mound duties last year, are also available.

Players Set For Performance Despite Rehearsal Difficulties

Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, in directing "Personal Appearance," the Narberth Players' final play of the season, has been faced with problems that no other director will probably ever be called upon to face. In spite of the fact that Elm Hall has been turned over almost completely to defense activities the group under the guidance of Mrs. Farmer has prepared an excellent play for presentation on Friday and Saturday evenings.

During recent weeks rehearsals have been held exactly on schedule even though it was necessary at times to compete with other groups who were using a section of Elm Hall at the same time. The final blow came last Saturday afternoon when, unable to use the hall, a rehearsal was staged in the Farmer's yard to the accompaniment of a power lawn mower.

Highlighting the play will be the appearance of two young actors who have played a large part in the success of the group this year — David Kornhauser and Robert Teter. Both of these men, newcomers at the start of the season, have distinguished themselves in a variety of roles during the year. This play, too, may be their last for some time inasmuch as both will in all probability be members of the armed forces before another season rolls around.

"Personal Appearance," by Lawrence Riley, is a sprightly comedy featuring the character of Carole Arden, a glamorous movie actress who finds it necessary to spend a night at a small tourist home in the country. Fay Fetterolf will play the part of the glamorous star while David Kornhauser will portray the role of her manager, Gene Tuttle. Robert Teter will play Chester Norton, a young man at the tourist home with whom Carole Arden becomes temporarily enamored.

Gordon Fernow will take the part of Aunt Kate Barnaby; Edna O'Connell will play Gladys Kelcey; Mary Speakman will be Joyce Struthers; Mrs. Struthers will be played by Jane Supper; Clyde Pelton by Philip Bentz; Jessie by Edith McGinty and Johnson by Walter Henneberg.

A special committee to handle scenery and properties includes George Werner, Ralph Giles, Beatrice Carver, Margie Shinn and Ann DeMarchi. Lighting will be taken care of by Hillman Supper, and Fay Fetterolf will be in charge of make-up.

Men in uniform have been admitted to the plays during the year free of charge and the group has extended a cordial invitation to all men in service to attend this, the final play of the season.

Predict Revival Of Europe's Rotary Members of Narberth's Business Council Are Guests

Rotarians have hopes of reviving the dormant Rotary movement in Europe after the war, members of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club heard at their luncheon meeting Tuesday noon at the Overbrook Golf Club.

The speaker was Henry Schramm, a former district governor of Rotary. Activities of many Rotary clubs in Europe have been dropped, declared Schramm, but officers of Rotary International are planning on a revival after the war. He told of receiving a letter from a district governor in Germany more than a year ago who expressed a similar hope.

The speaker traced the history of Rotary's development from its inception as a small group in Chicago. Most of his talk dealt with the educational and service principles embodied in the Rotary movement.

Honor guests for the luncheon were members of the Narberth Business Men's Council. They were introduced by the Council president, Walter Case.

Dr. Richard C. Mears, president of the Club, presided.

NARBERTH SCHOOL BOARD ABOLISHES $2 PER CAPITA TAX ON MEN, WOMEN

Budget of $105,824.40 Is Less Than Last Year's

18 MILLS PROPERTY TAX REMAINS SAME

The Narberth School Board abolished its $2 per capita tax at a meeting Monday night, and passed a tentative budget to expend $105,824.40 this coming school year.

It was one of the last official acts for the presiding president, Robert C. Collins, whose resignation became effective at the end of the meeting.

Action of the School Board removes one of the few occupational taxes being imposed by school districts and municipalities in the Philadelphia suburban districts.

To the people it will represent a saving of approximately $7000 a year. About 3600 taxables will be affected.

At the same time the School Board voted to continue the property tax of 18 mills, the same as last year.

The 1942-43 school budget is about $1000 less than it was last year. Items of increase include a greater allowance for the increased cost of materials used in making repairs and increases in teacher's salaries to match increased living costs.

Last year the per capita tax gave the School District $5790 and they estimated that this year's return, if the tax remained, would be approximately $7452.

The property tax of 18 mills last year brought in $83,995.51 and this year the return is estimated at $89,687.61.

The only Narberth per capita tax left is the occupational tax imposed by the Borough on men. The per capita tax on women was removed two years ago.

Collins Resigns as School Board Head

War and Defense Work Given as His Reason

Resignation of Robert C. Collins, 129 Chestnut av., Narberth, as member and president of the Narberth School Board was announced this week.

Collins said that increased war and defense construction work was the reason for his resignation. Recently Collins was appointed general sales manager in the East of the Warner Company, a position which requires considerable traveling. The Company, whose Philadelphia office is at 219 Broad st., is engaged in extensive war and defense construction work.

Collins in resigning expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of the other directors. His successor will be named by the other six members of the Board but no action has been taken as yet.

The retiring president was on his second six-year-term when he resigned. He was appointed to the Board in 1936 to fill a vacancy and later elected.

C. Howard Nold, vice-president of the Board, will serve as presiding officer until a new president is elected.

Villanova Takes U. S. Relay Crown

Wildcats and Episcopal Score Only Victories For Main Liners

Villanova College and Episcopal Academy provided the only thrills for Main Line track fans at the annual Penn Relay Carnival at Franklin Field last Friday and Saturday.

Villanova captured the national Class B one mile title and Episcopal ended Haverford School's four year reign in the Interacademic League one mile championship race.

The Villanova team of Guida, Hopper, O'Sullivan and Dunbar was timed in 3:19.2 in winning its Saturday race. On Friday the Wildcats placed fourth in the second section of the national sprint medley relay race.

Gilpin Gibbon, former Lower Merion High athlete, ran the second leg for Episcopal as the Churchmen triumphed in 3:35.3, to gain their first relay crown since 1937. Penn Charter was second and Haverford third.

Haverford College finished third in the Middle Atlantic A. A. one mile championship race on Friday and placed fourth in a one-mile class race on Saturday.

Neither Lower Merion nor Haverford High were able to place in the Suburban Conference Class A mile championship on Friday. However, the Pords did manage to take third in the fourth heat of the national 440-yard relay event on Friday.

Cheltenham won the Suburban title for the second straight year and boosted the conference's prestige by placing fourth in the national one-mile championship event.

Young Republicans Line-Up for Davis

"He Represents Our Fighting Principles," Declares Sacks

A solid Young Republican line-up at five Northeastern Pennsylvania counties for the nomination of Senator Davis was announced this week.

The line-up embraces all prominent young Republicans in the counties of Montgomery, Delaware, North Hampton, Lancaster and Chester.

Virtually the only two Young Republicans who have not cast their lot with Davis live in Lower Merion Township. They are John A. McGarvey, Bryn Mawr, who works under John C. Bell, State Secretary of Banking and a candidate for the lieutenant-governor nomination on the Martin ticket, and Fred B. Hufnagel, Gladwyne, whose uncle is Joseph N. Pew, Jr., one of Martin's financial backers.

Neither McGarvey or Hufnagel are members of the committee of twelve in whom is vested the executive power of the Young Republicans of Montgomery County.

The Main Line's representatives on this Committee of Twelve, which is overwhelmingly for Senator Davis, are Connie Barker, Gladwyne; Otto Duer, Narberth; Harry Bechtel, Franconia; Edward Assenheimer, Ambler; Thomas McCaslin, Pottstown, and Helen Wright, Glenside, representing the Young Republicans.

"Senator Davis," declared Harry E. Sacks, Jr., Norristown, who is chairman of the Young Republican Committee of Twelve, "represents everything for which Young Republicans of Pennsylvania have been fighting. They would be voting against themselves if they nominated anyone else."

Young and Old G.O.P.'s To Give Benefit Dance

Montgomery County Young Republicans in collaboration with the Republican County Committee, will hold a dance on May 2, at Norristown City Hall for the benefit of Montgomery County chapters of the American Red Cross.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the affair includes John Marshall, Elkins Park, chairman; Otto Duer, Narberth; Harry Bechtel, Franconia; Edward Assenheimer, Ambler; Thomas McCaslin, Pottstown, and Helen Wright, Glenside, representing the Young Republicans.

Lloyd H. Wood, chairman of the Montgomery County - Republican Committee, has appointed Russell S. Knipe, Hatfield; Esther S. Jenkins, Gwynedd; Helen G. Greenwood, Wynnewood; and Norman L. John, Pottstown, to represent the Senior Committee on the Committee on Arrangements.

POISONOUS QUININE FROM MARTIN PENS

We doubt if either Mrs. John Y. Huber, president of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women, or Julius Ziegler, former president of the Lower Merion Board of Commissioners, condone the mixture of political hash that is being dished out from the Martin headquarters.

Although both of these citizens are stumping for the retired National Guard general for the Republican nomination for Governor, they are inherently decent, fair-minded and disinclined to trade on patriotism and their Country's misfortunes.

In fact, it is hard for us to believe that if General Martin were the burning patriot and warrior he is advertised to be his soldier-instinct would not restrain him from approving any more "Bataan releases."

This release, sent to the newspapers from Martin headquarters, accuses Senator Davis of being at least partially responsible for the fall of Bataan. Now, neither General Martin, who knows something about military affairs, or the smart boys who write his copy and are familiar with Washington news, believe that statement. If it was the lack of quinine that resulted in the fall of Bataan, we know that it was the powerful Jesse Jones who failed to O. K. several months previously, an Administrative proposal to buy all the quinine available in Java. If the Bataan tragedy was due to the lack of general preparedness, then we know that our outstanding isolationists had something to do with that.

At the beginning of this gubernatorial contest, General Martin proposed to wage a campaign that would be free from mud-slinging.

He is already deep in the mire.

Of course, the publicity tactics are commonplace.

General Martin's campaign managers feared criticism because their candidate had responded to the bidding of Joseph N. Pew, Jr., to leave military service at the most crucial time in the Nation's history. So, to turn about the situation, they applied the same heat to the opposition with trumped up charges that Senator Davis was renouncing duty in Washington by becoming a candidate for Governor.

We think this is rather thin political strategy, too thin for Pennsylvanians to stomach.

CIVILIAN DEFENSE INFORMATION

VICTORY GARDEN COMMITTEE ADVISES ON FRUIT GROWING

Good care of the fruit trees and bushes and of grape vines on the home property is a patriotic duty, asserts Harold Graham, chairman of the Montgomery County Victory Garden Committee. Home production of fruit is an important part of the national effort to be healthy and strong.

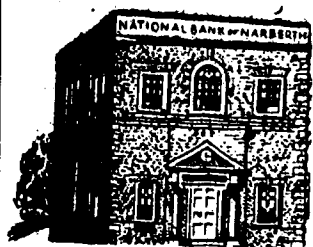

Increased home fruit production can be brought about more quickly, he points out, by improved fertilization, pruning, and control of insects and diseases on the fruit of plants now growing, than by planting new ones.

Do not hesitate, however, to set out new home plantings of fruits which are adapted to home culture, among which the leading kinds are strawberries, bush fruits and grapes, Mr. Graham added.

The first step in fruit improvement is pruning, which should be completed before buds have opened noticeably. Dead and damaged branches should be removed, since thinning out weak and unproductive wood will make effective spraying easier and will improve the quality of the fruit. Heading back to restrict height of trees, and removal of branches that droop too near the ground completes the operation. Inexperienced fruit gardeners can obtain information on pruning from the county agent.

Vigorous growth is essential for good fruit production. To obtain this in stone fruits, moderate cultivation with spring applications of manure or nitrogenous fertilizer are favorable. Nitrogenous fertilizers or manure are recommended for apples in thin sods; heavy sods should be harrowed or dug lightly.

Helping Mary To Health

This Friday May 1, has been set aside as Child Health Day, and this glimpse of Narberth's dental clinic was photographed to emphasize the importance of this movement.

In this picture, Dr. Monroe T. Rees, chairman of the dentists who donate their services, is checking up on the teeth of young Mary Brogan, who lives at 325 Woodbine Ave., Narberth. Looking on are Mrs. Chester Jones, one of the clinic's volunteer drivers, and Miss Claire Robinson, Lower Merion High School senior, who, with other high school girls, is receiving experience in dental work.

The clinic, held each Thursday at Bryn Mawr Hospital, is supervised by Miss Edith W. Unruh, R. N., Narberth's public health nurse, and is financed by the welfare committee of the Women's Community Club of Narberth and the Pennsylvania Dental Association.

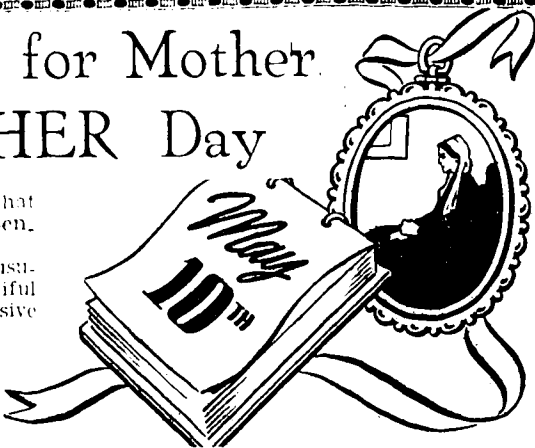

Dr. Rees, Dr. H. B. Lane and Dr. J. S. Wyckoff all of Narberth, rotate their services in caring for the children.

"The work carried on here," says Dr. Rees, "entails much good volunteer work and cooperation by health-minded people in the community. In a small way, we are trying to educate children and parents in the value of sound teeth to the health and future of the child."

"There are, however, still many needs," he points out. "We would like to see the clinic located in Narberth because of transportation difficulties. We would like to see faster correction of dental defects and an understanding of the value of good nutrition to good teeth."

Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, chairman of welfare, has announced that the first classes will be held at the Health Center, Haverford and Conway ave., at 10 a.m. May 7, and at 2 p.m. May 8. This duplication is for the convenience of mothers. Pre-school children will be cared for by Mrs. F. Munro Purse at the Center while the mothers are attending the classes.

Women need not sign for the course or attend all meetings. The classes will meet at the same time each week.

Citizens of the Merion district united in large numbers Sunday afternoon for a Defense Rally on the grounds of the Merion War Tribute House under the auspices of the Merion Civic Association.

The Rally was followed by a complete and instructive exhibit in the Tribute House of various phases of the work.

Greeting the citizens, Harold W. Scott, president of the Association, told them he thought it was the proper thing to be there, that by their presence they showed they realized the seriousness of the situation and that he felt those in Merion should know how the community was prepared to meet the emergency.

He introduced Walter C. Neely, chairman of the Township Council of Defense, who explained "Merion's Part in Civilian Defense," and State Senator Franklyn Spencer Edmonds who spoke on "Merion in Wartime."

A demonstration of methods of putting out incendiary bombs by Fire Marshal Frank J. Pollack and of the new Township trailer pumps followed on the grounds of the Tribute House.

Different Now

Things are different in this man's army than they were in Dad's day. There's a whole new set of slang, machines have taken the place of mules, and the holes in the Salvation Army doughnuts are star-shaped instead of round. But top sergeants are about the same, the scientists haven't yet found a substitute for beans, and it's still the Old Army Game—no matter how thin you slice it.

PENN VALLEY CLUB TO HAVE BOOTH AT RITTENHOUSE MARKET

Dickie Case Against Township Withdrawn; Police Rules Changed

Although the action was taken some time ago it was made public this week that Millard M. Dickie, former Lower Merion detective, has withdrawn his case against the Township to collect a day's wage amounting to $617.

At a hearing before a local magistrate in July of last year, Dickie's claim was upheld and the case was booked for Montgomery County Court in Norristown.

The patrolman's claim represented what he was "docked" in wages by a superior officer. He contended that in addition to losing the day's pay he was made to work the day. Testimony he produced was to the effect that a man's constitutional rights were impaired when he was made to work a day for which he received no pay.

The Township claimed that the day's wage subtracted from Dickie's pay constituted a fine for being late for work. Since the incident, however, the Township has drawn up new regulations under the State Civil Service Police Code which sets certain fines to be imposed when regulations are violated.

Dickie lives on Youne's Ford rd. in Gladwyne.
